Dear Parish Family,

...make disciples of all the nations

I've shared this story with some of our communities that as a student in the seminary we were required to teach religion in a local state primary school. One day when I was teaching a class of year fours, I asked them to draw for me a picture of what the Ascension might look like. As you would guess some had Jesus on a cloud rising. One particular student had a different take.... he had Jesus blasting off on a rocket and on the side was written NASA. When I asked why a rocket, he replied.... Jesus had a long way to go.

The message of the Ascension is a powerful one. It situates Jesus, the incarnation of God, to a specific time and place in history. The short Gospel passage this week contains the final words of Jesus and is the commissioning not just of the disciples, but of the Church itself. Jesus ensured that his message and ministry would continue, especially through the coming of the Holy Spirit, which we celebrate next weekend. Although the Gospel passage is short, it is packed with meaning.

"Make disciples of all nations" - it breaks through all limitations of race or creed and is no longer just a privilege for the people of Israel. The Word, the good news is to be spread throughout the world, across every time and place.

"Baptise them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit" - no longer limited to males introduced through circumcision, but a new initiation rite where the fullness of life through Baptism is offered to all people — regardless of who you are - woman or man, servant or free....one in the Trinity.

"Teach them to observe the commandments" - Jesus' commands to love God and love neighbour now replace the sacred law of Israel. The new people of God will be formed by the teaching and actions of Jesus: to love even those we may not wish to associate with. Did you notice the order? You have to be baptised first in order to understand Jesus' teachings, that is be filled with the Spirit.

"And know that I am with you always" — a new era is to begin. The disciples must let go of the physical presence of their Lord so that Jesus may be present in a new way through the Spirit. And he will always have our back no matter what!

Over this coming week we farewell Our Lady Help of Christians Church at Boolaroo. The community has been part of Boolaroo since the late 1800s, and the current church has been a place of worship since 1961. Due to structural problems with the church building, it was decided over two years ago that the church would need to close. That time has now arrived. Over this coming week the final Masses will be celebrated, together with a Liturgy of Lament on Tuesday 19th at 6.00pm where we will share memories of the church. The Closure Liturgy will be held at 3pm next Saturday. All are welcome to join us as we hold our Boolaroo community in our prayers, keeping close to our hearts the words of the Gospel: "Know that I am with you always."

From next weekend (23rd/24th), a reminder that the Vigil Mass will be celebrated at St Michael the Archangel Church, Booragul at 5.30pm and Sunday Mass at Toronto will be at 8.30am and Morisset at 10.00am.

As we leave the Easter season and draw closer to the feast of Pentecost, may we recall through Baptism and Confirmation that we have received this Advocate — the Spirit who brought birth to the world, the birth of Jesus, and the birth of us as Church, as we pray: Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

The Ascension of the Lord A Sunday 17 May 2026

First Reading (Acts of the Apostles 1:1-11)

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said, 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 46:2-3. 6-9. R. v.6)

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

1. All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. (R.)
2. God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. (R.)
3. God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. (R.)

Second Reading (Ephesians 1:17-23)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

Gospel Acclamation (Matthew 28:19. 20)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel. I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Alleluia!

Gospel (Matthew 28:16-20)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commandments I gave to you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

Volunteer Week – “Your Year to Volunteer”

Volunteer Week begins Monday 18 May, and this year's theme – “Your Year to Volunteer” – is a beautiful reminder that every person has something life-giving to offer.

As a faith community, we especially hold in prayer those who give their time to serve as Special Religious Education teachers in our local public schools. Their presence brings hope, connection, and the light of Christ to children who may not encounter it anywhere else. This Volunteer Week, we gently and wholeheartedly invite you to consider whether this might be your year to step into this ministry.

Becoming an SRE teacher is an act of love – a simple “yes” that can shape a child's understanding of faith for years to come.

If you feel a nudge, a curiosity, or even the smallest spark, we would love to walk with you. Contact Nichola:

DEAR LIVING PRAYER FAMILY

In the current geo/political crisis, as the world waits with bated breath and Christian's pray for peace, we applaud the courage and strength of The Vicar of Christ who has called out those that "turn a blind eye to the killing and devastation".

In his first address as Pope, Leo stated "We are disciples of Christ. Christ goes before us. The world needs his light. Humanity needs him as the bridge to be reached by God and his love.....help each other to build bridges, with dialogue, with encounters, uniting us all to be one people, always at peace".

How proud are Catholics world-wide that our Pastor does not merely offer opinion on theology but is preaching the Gospel of Christ, and the peace of the risen Christ, a "disarming and humble and preserving peace".
We pray for Our Holy Father Pope Leo XIV.
